A GREAT BIG KICK.

We dislike exceedingly to be esteemed a kicker, but, when we do start out in that like, we like to do so to a finish. For some time we have had complaints from our subscribers living on the Lawrenceburg pike that they are from four to five days in receiving their papers. Some of them even going so far as to say that they will be compelled to discontinue their papers if this is not remedied. From what we can learn the trouble is that there is a gap in the R. F. D. routes Nos. 1 and 2, from this city and from Lawrenceburg. The Lawrenceburg route comes to a certain point and there turns off and the route from this city does not quite reach to the point where the Lawrenceburg route turns off, so that citizens living in the gap get no mail at all, or only at intervals. This is a perfect nuisance and ought to be abated. Understand we are not blaming the R. F. D. boys, but their superiors who have laid out these routes.

An instance in point. One of our subscribers told us last Friday that he had not yet received his Roundabout of July 23. He also said that he ordered a piece of machinery for some of his farming implements and waited several days for it to come. Not hearing, he sent a man to the city and he brought it home, at an outlay of $7.25. After he had the machinery at home he received a postal from the Express Company, telling him that the needed works were in their office. This postal was on the way four days. Being so much annoyed by these failures in the mail, the gentleman, as a last resort, is using the telephone to send his orders to the city involving heavy expense. He says it is much worse than it ever was in the old times before the rural routes were established, and this gentleman lives in 100 yards of the pike.

We trust this matter may be attended to and the proper remedy applied speedily.

A PERFECT PAINLESS PILL.

Is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and gives a good taste in the mouth. These pills are pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectively are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by J. W. Gayle.

ADJUDGED A LUNATIC.

Mr. Pat Sullivan was tried before Judge J. H. Polsgrove on a writ de lunatico inveniendo, on Monday, and ordered sent to the asylum.

REVENUE COLLECTIONS FOR JULY.

Deputy Collector Grant L. Roberts collected internal revenue taxes for the month of July as follows: 1,736 barrels; $8,372.90 tax gallons; $75,210.19 amount of taxes.

SPLENDID RAIN.

We had another splendid rain on Monday evening. It poured down very nicely for more than an hour and then rained quietly for two hours or more. All nature smiled in welcome, as the weather had been very warm Saturday, Sunday and up to the time of the storm on Monday.

Dr. Weaver's Syrup and Cerate.
Successful treatment for blood and skin diseases.

NEARLY FORFEITS HIS LIFE.

A runaway almost ending fatal started a horrid ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Burns, Bruises, Skin Eructions and Piles. Zec. at all druggists.

COUNTY FIRE.

About 12 o'clock, on Tuesday night, the fine barn of Mr. Gilher Mastin, about two and a half miles from this city, was discovered to be on fire.

In the excitement incident to the discovery, Mr. Mastin ran to the barn without stopping to put on his shoes. When he reached there the whole barn was a mass of flames. He succeeded in saving his carriage and other vehicles, but all of them were more or less damaged. But he was unable to reach a fine young horse which he had purchased only a few days before.

In the endeavor to save the horse and other things Mr. Mastin had his feet and hands pretty badly burned, and was otherwise searched, by treading on hot rocks and smoldering brands.

In addition to the losses mentioned quite a lot of harness and farming implements were destroyed.

The loss will amount to $1,500, with only partial insurance.

Dr. John G. South was summoned by special messenger (the telephone failing for the first time in years), and he and Mr. John C. Mastin went out to attend to Mr. Mastin's injuries, which were found to be very painful though not necessarily dangerous.

It was lucky for Mr. Mastin that the fire did not come Monday night, as there were four or five other fine horses in the barn, which would have been lost. He thinks the fire was caused by an accident.

APPOINTED STATE ELECTION COMMISSION.

On Tuesday last Judge James Breathitt, of Christian county, and Mr. Chas. B. Payntz, of Mason county, were selected as the State Election Commissioners of the Republican and Democratic parties respectively. In conjunction with Hon. J. Moran Chin, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, who is ex-officio chairman, these gentlemen will compose the commission for one year.

SIXTY YEARS OF POPULARITY.

I record the record of Painkiller (Perry Davis'), but the record is full of facts and figures which make the great reputation of the genuine: he cautions, therefore, when you get for a bottle to see that you get the genuine. An unfailing remedy for coughs, colds, bronchitis.

WILLS PROBATED.

The will of Rev. George Darsie, leaving all his property to his wife, was probated Monday. Mrs. Darsie is executor without bond.

The will of Mr. Jos. Robinson was probated Monday. It leaves his estate to his two daughters (Mrs. Newton and Mrs. Farmer) equally. Mr. Ben T. Farmer and Mr. Chas. Newton are executors.

CLOSED UP.

The stock of wall paper, paints, etc., of Mr. W. B. Bridgeford, in the Catholic building, on St. Clair street, was closed out by his son, Mr. Russell Bridgeford, on Monday, and the store closed up.

ANOTHER GAME WARDEN.

County Judge J. H. Polsgrove has appointed Mr. L. A. Watkins, of Flat Creek, an additional game warden. Judge Polsgrove is determined to stop dynamiting fish and other violations of the game laws.

SATURDAY'S BLAZE.

Shortly before 7 o'clock, on Saturday night, an alarm from box 13 (followed by an alarm from box 18) called the firemen to the residence of Mr. —— Cronce, on Murray street, where a lamp had exploded and set fire to the basement dining room. The fire was soon extinguished with but small loss.

Dr. Weaver's Treatment.
Syrup for the blood; Cerate for skin eruptions.

DEATH CLAMIS CLEVER FELLOW AND GOOD OFFICER.

The sad news was received in this city, on Monday afternoon, that Mr. W. A. Johnson, of Paris, a U. S. Government Storekeeper and Gauger, had died there that afternoon.

Mr. Johnson was an old friend of the proprietor of this paper. He was a printer by trade and followed it until appointed to the position he held at his death. He was a clever gentleman and made an efficient officer. He leaves a wife and two daughters to mourn his death.

WAR ON DOGS.

Owing to the fact that several dogs have gone mad in our city recently and had to be killed, the police (very wisely, we think) have opened war on the hordes of worthless curs that roam our streets, making night hideous and life hazardous for so many of our citizens. If a dog is valuable enough to be worth having, he is valuable enough for his owner to pay the tax and take care of him, otherwise the sooner he is out of the way the better.

BUYS HANDSOME LOT.

Mr. Jud Brisban has purchased from Mr. Dan Meagher, Sr., his handsome vacant lot on Third street, 60x190 feet, for $1,500 cash. Mr. Brisban will at once erect a dwelling house. It is a very desirable location.

LAWRENCEBURG FAIR.

We are in receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Lawrenceburg Fair, which will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 16th, 17th, 18th and 19th.

This association always puts up a first-class, old-fashioned fair, and everybody that attends have a royal good time.

We desire to return our thanks to the officers of the association for their kindly courtesy.

We would urge our citizens to attend this fair. They will not regret it.

DISTINGUISHED AND POPULAR LADY DIES.

Mrs. Nelson A. Miles, wife of Lieut. Gen. N. A. Miles, U. S. A., retired, died suddenly at West Point, N. Y., on Tuesday, of heart failure. She was visiting her son, Sherman, who is a cadet at that Academy. She was a niece of Gen. W. T. and Senator John Sherman, and was a popular and handsome lady.

WHOOPEE! WHOOPEE!!

We Are Strictly In It and No Miss-take.

In addition to the great John Robinson's Circus (which will be here on Saturday, September 3d), we are promised another in the shape of Sells Bros. and Forepaugh's Circus on Friday, Sep. 23d, not quite three weeks apart.

ATTENTION.

Parties going on the C. & O. excursion to Atlantic City, on August 4th, will please send in their names for sleeping car reservation as soon as possible.

KING'S DAUGHTERS HOSPITAL.

REMINISCENCE AND MEMORIAL.

Some charitably inclined person having a modest sum to give, enclosed fifty cents in a plain envelope and mailed to the secretary of the King's Daughters; this contribution is appreciated and the officers take this occasion to thank the donor. Renewed interest is being taken in the affairs of the King's Daughters by the general public just now, occasioned by the announcement that the committee in charge of arrangements for their proposed new Hospital, have decided upon a plan and Architect Oberwarth is busy with the details looking to immediate construction of the building which will be a model of simplicity, convenience and hygienic appointment.

The Hospital, as planned, will cost approximately seven thousand dollars, of which amount the ladies have already raised about three thousand, and it remains for the good citizens of this community to let their generous instincts have full sway, and make liberal gifts to this most noteworthy and practically charitable movement.

The erection and maintenance of an institution of this character can only redound to the credit of the city, and should be a matter of pride to every citizen.

Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet.

FRANKFORT, AUG. 6, 1904

DEATH OF MR. JOHN M. COLEMAN.

At 3 o'clock, p.m., on Sunday afternoon, Mr. John M. Coleman died at his home, on Steele street, of consumption, aged 66 years.

Mr. Coleman was the son of the late Mr. J. Carter Coleman, of this city, and was born and reared here. He was also a nephew of the Hon. Roger Q. Mills, U. S. Senator from Texas, his mother being a sister of Mr. Mills.

Mr. Coleman was a quiet, unassuming and retiring gentleman. In early life he was married to Miss Emily Woodson, daughter of the late Mr. R. Kidder Woodson, and eight children were born to them (two sons—Mr. Woodson Coleman and Master John Marshall Coleman; and six daughters—Misses Emily, Annie, Elizabeth, Eva, Mary and Clarice Coleman).

Mr. Coleman was a contractor and builder by occupation, but, owing to ill health, he had not been able to follow his occupation for several years.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church for long years. He was a soldier in the Civil War and was shot through the right breast in an attack on Fort Boone, this city, by Col. Henry Gilmer's Confederate Cavalry, from which he never fully recovered.

The funeral services were conducted from his home, on Steele street, on Tuesday morning, at 10:30 o'clock, by Rev. Wm. Crow, of the Southern Presbyterian Church (in the absence of his pastor, Rev. M. B. Adams), and the remains were deposited in the family lot in our cemetery.

In addition to his wife and children, he leaves three brothers (Mr. Ed. J. Coleman, of Louisville; Dr. J. S. Coleman, of this city, and Mr. L. S. Coleman, of Middletown), and three sisters (Mrs. W. W. Jett and Mrs. John M. Jameson, of this city, and Mrs. L. B. Kehne, of Fort Worth, Texas), besides a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

DEWITT IS THE NAME.

When you go to buy Witch Hazel Salve look for the name DeWitt on every box. The pure, unadulterated Witch Hazel is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, eczema and psoriasis. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has caused numerous counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuine bears the name E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

Croup instantly relieved. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Perfectly safe. Never fails. At any drug store.

STRANGER BADLY HURT.

A stranger, supposed to be Frank M. Jones, of Whitley county, was found, on Monday evening, in Cat Fish Alley, with a bad gash on his head and unconscious.

Dr. J. S. Demaree was called and examined the man. He is uncertain, as yet, whether the skull is crushed in or not.

The man had $85.50 in money in his pocket and a letter addressed to the name given above.

It is not known whether the man (who had been drinking) was hurt by some one or whether he fell on the rocks in the alley and hurt himself.

P. S.—Jones died Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Miles' Restorative Nervine brings rest and sweet sleep to the tired brain worn out with the cares and anxieties of the sick room. For the past year I have been taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Tonics and nursing my husband for nearly three months when he departed this life and the mental strain think caused my trouble. Aside from extreme exhaustion my trouble commenced with sore throat and neuralgia. My physician gave me purgative doses which did not help very much and I became inactive for a time. My faith in Dr. Miles' Remedies has been strengthened by using Restorative Nervine with splendid results in a case of paraparesis and a friend to whom I sent a box of the Anti-Pain Pills received the same and was greatly relieved of his neuralgia by their use. I know of a number of others whom your medicine has helped in a like manner. Write for full particulars.

WOMAN WINS $2,500.

Mrs. Herbert Tetlow, Washingtonville, O., Secures First Prize in Lion Coffee Contest.

A Fortune for Correctly Estimating World's Fair Attendance on July 4th—Another Liberal Premium Offered Based on Presidential Vote

Toledo, O., July 21—(Special)—Probably no one was more surprised than was Mrs. Herbert Tetlow, Washingtonville, Ohio, when the estimators failed to return a premium containing a certified check for $2,500, signed by the Woolson Spice Company of Toledo, Ohio.

This good fortune is the result of an estimate made by Mrs. Tetlow in the contest to determine the largest attendance at the St. Louis Exposition on July 4th was $30,650.

As Mrs. Tetlow's estimate was exactly correct, she was given first prize. Mrs. Tetlow sent in only six estimates.

M. K. Hassinger, LaMona, Pa., received the second prize of $1,000. E. B. Roseboom, Frankfort, O., and James A. Astroff, Elkhart, N. Y., each received $500 prizes. In all, 2,139 prizes, amounting to $20,000, were awarded.

Throughout the last six months Woolson Spice Company has been publishing in the leading newspapers of the country a contest offer of $50,000 in cash prizes. The $20,000 just awarded is in their World's Fair Contest. Another $20,000 will be given in the same way to those who make the best estimates of the attendance at the St. Louis Exposition next November. This contest is awakening great interest throughout the country, and Lion Head trade-marks are being eagerly sought after, some persons offering to pay as much as five cents a piece for them.

The progressive methods of advertising and profit-sharing adopted by the Lion Coffee people are sure to add to the popularity of this already well-known and widely sold product.

All told, 33 people in Kentucky won prizes, the ten leading ones being:

$20,000 PRIZE. Estimate, J. A. Smith, Grayson, Ky. 139,826
$10,000 PRIZE. Wm. Dilley, Greenup, Ky., won 2 prizes.

$5,000 PRIZE. Mrs. Anna B. Pettell, Folsom, Ky.

$2,500 PRIZE. H. B. Morton, Mortons Gap, Ky.

$1,000 PRIZE. Johnathan Salmon, Greenup, Ky.

$500 PRIZE. J. L. White, New Columbus, Ky.

$250 PRIZE. W. W. White, Lytle, Ky.

Thos. Blanchard, Maysville, Ky.

W. H. Bogan, Franklin, Ky. 135,912

The contest is a hearty competition on the well deserved good fortune that fell to us locally. In addition to other State winners awards in this city were made to D. P. Gray, who won 3 prizes, 110,168, 137,95 and 133,943.

EASILY DECIDED.

This Question Should be Answered
Easily by Frankfort People.

Frankfort, Ky., July 18, 1904.
The Franklin Association of Baptists will convene with the First Baptist Church of Frankfort, on Wednesday and Thursday, the 24th and 25th days of August, 1904. Pursuant to an order made at the session of the Association in 1903, at Pleasant Ridge Church, it was thought advisable that a central, convenient and permanent place for the meetings of the Association be provided, and that the church, with which the meetings be held under this arrangement, be relieved of all the care and necessity of providing entertainment for the messengers and visitors, and this meeting is to be held under that provision. Ample room will be provided by the Frankfort Church in its former chapel for all visitors and messengers to spread lunch, etc. At a meeting of the Executive Board of the Association, held this day, this arrangement was unanimously adopted, and, by virtue of that arrangement, the place of the meeting of the ensuing session was determined as at Frankfort. The Frankfort church, having previously tendered the use of their building for the above purposes, and under above conditions also. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of four, viz: J. E. Kirtley, Jas. A. Scott, N. R. Armstrong and E. R. Jones, with the pastor of the Frankfort Church, as ex officio, be appointed, whose duty it shall be to formulate a plan, and present it to the next meeting of the Association, whereby a suitable, central place, may be selected, and all other necessary arrangements for the consideration of the Association.

Resolved, That the Moderator of the Association be requested to give due notice of the above through the Frankfort papers, the Baptist Argus and Recorder.

U. V. WILLIAMS,
Moderator Franklin Association.

The following standing committees are requested to have their reports ready when the Association convenes:

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

The following resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the officers of the First Presbyterian Church, held Wednesday last:

Joseph Robinson was born in Franklin County, Kentucky, December 18, 1823, and died in the city of Frankfort, July 20, 1901. The whole of his active life was spent in this city and county. For forty years or more he had been one of the leading citizens of his city and community.

At a joint meeting of the elders and deacons of the Southern Presbyterian Church, the following memorial was adopted in view of his decease:

Mr. Robinson was elected to the Eldership of the Lower Benton Presbyterian Church in 1873; when that organization was dissolved, in order that its membership might become the nucleus of the South Frankfort Church, Mr. Robinson, together with Peter Jett who had been his pastor in the old church (for many years), was installed into the eldership of the new body. Mr. Jett died within a few years after removing to Frankfort. Therefore, this present loss removes the last representative among the bereft elders of the old organization.

Mr. Robinson's life and labors are worthy of imitation by every one who seeks the highest efficiency in the discharge of the duties incumbent upon an officer of God's house. He loved his church with the tenderness of a mother. He was devoid of bigotry and cant. His zeal in things pertaining to the courts of the Lord impressed as he grew in years. In the joint performances of the church officers he was wise in counsel, always ready for aggressive work, eagerly offering his own services for anything that might further the cause of Zion.

In the session he constantly showed an interest in the spiritual welfare of the whole church, and, while conservative, was always open to any suggestion that might give hope for improvement of the spiritual condition.

As a presbyter he was noted for his faithfulness in attendance upon the meetings of the church courts.

His occasional absence was a source of solicitation on the part of his many friends gathered there. But as a visitor, Mr. Robinson was best known and most beloved. He found his highest pleasure in going to the homes of the sick, the aged, the infirm. No corner of the floor was neglected, and his neighbors and friends of every denomination welcomed his gentle ministrations. He carried sunshine with him. He was bright, sympathetic, tactful, kind. He forgot himself and his own feelings in his concern for his friends.

"Life's duty done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies.
While heaven and earth combine to say,
How blest the righteous when he dies."

We have beheld the passing of a well rounded life. We humbly trust that God has the soul presence of this man among us. In joint session assembled we would cause to be inscribed the following resolutions:

First. That a page in the Record Book of this session be set apart for this memorial, together with minutes of the called meeting.

Second. That this memorial be furnished. The Daily Kentucky Journal, The Frankfort Roundabout and The Christian Observer for publication, so that a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

(For the Roundabout.)
IN REMEMBRANCE.

Of Rev. Thomas M. Rummans, former pastor of Mt. Zion Church, who died March 9th, 1904, at his home in Lewis county, Kentucky, of consumption. How sad that one so useful should be taken so early, but the fairest flowers are soonest gone.

Although his stay in our community was brief, yet his kind and patient manners, and his earnest Christian endeavors, both in his pastoral labors and in the social circle, touched a chord in our hearts that will ever vibrate tenderly to his memory.

In the bloom of early manhood,
In spring time's golden dawn,
A useful life, just scarce begun,
In the flush of youth's bright morn.

Ever toiling for his Master.

Until the harvest days were o'er,
Faithful heart and hands, so willing.

Theo' afflictions tempted sore.

'Twas an angel came and whispered,

Calm and softly in his ear,

"Tom, your Father sends a message."

He is calling, don't you hear?"

On his brow the light of heaven
Glowed with radiance, calmed all fears.

For across the rolling waters
Came the welcome sweet and clear.

Then the patient sufferer answered
In a tone so faint and low,
I've been waiting for your summons

And am ready now to go."

Then the guiding angel took him
By his weak and trembling hand,
Bore him safely o'er the waters
To that bright celestial land.

Round the throne he now is kneel-
ing,
Filled with rapture — see him
smile —

As he listens to the anthems
They are chanting all the while.

Hear his voice in triumph blending,
As he joins with sweet accord,
In that pure and saintly music,
Singing praise to the Lord.

A FRIEND.

ESCAPED AN AWFUL FATE.

Mr. H. Haggins, of Melbourne, Fla., writes: "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by all druggists. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free.

STAMPING GROUND.

Mrs. Hattie Perry, wife of Mr. Lou Perry, of Lexington, is dangerously ill.

Mr. R. S. Sprake sold to Mr. B. Stone a lot of 80-pound shoths at $4.15 per hundred.

Mr. J. Lawrence Wilkerson is spending his vacation with us. He is employed by John Shillito Co., of Cincinnati.

The wheat crop is nearly all threshed and is proving more satisfactory than was expected. The price is also better than for several years. Ninety cents is being offered now, and many predict $1 wheat soon.

Mr. W. O. Calvert and family have gone to Trafalgar, Ind., to make their home.

The county candidates had a rally here on Saturday. There was a good crowd out and "many voters" got in his work nicely.

The drought still afflicts our farmers. Crops of all kinds are suffering.

An elaborate display of fire works has been secured.

GOOD SPIRITS.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the Liver—all the fine spirits from the Liver. The Liver could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be fine, content, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your Liver in fine condition by using Green's Anguinal Lotion—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years.

August Flora will make your Liver healthy and active, and will give you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists.
